

MINUTES OWGA– NOVEMBER 13, 2017

In attendance: Robin Craig, Linda Packo, Berti Avery, Brooke Manino and Betty Fedyna

Robin called the meeting to order at 10:07 a.m.

Treasurers Report:

Unencumbered balance is the same as last month, $953.87. We agreed to use $50 per month for door prizes next season. We agreed on the following ladies day pricing for next year:

- $5 per week for 9 hole players
- $7 per week for 18 hole players

Prizes on Scramble Days

We agreed to the following:

- 1st and 2nd place prizes
- 3rd place will depend on the number of people who have signed up
- We will have door prizes which will be funded by the funds from the Treasury and will be for those who attend (as opposed to those who have played since the last luncheon)
- We will continue with Closest to the Pin ($10) and add Closest to the Line prizes.

End of Year Prizes

- Most Improved Golfer (based on handicap) for 9 hole and 18 hole players. We agreed that to be eligible the winner must have played in 5 Ladies Day tournaments during the season.
- Holes – in – One
- Ringers
- Birdies / Chip Ins

One dollar each week will help fund the end of year prizes.

Updates:

- Jeff Bebbino is willing to present at the winter lunches and the Nine and Wine. We will need to coordinate with him on what we would like him to cover.
- Billy Casper will provide the wine for the Scramble day luncheons and the Nine & Wine.
- Robin, Rose and Maryann to schedule a meeting with Rebecca in January to plan for our luncheons

Tournament Schedule

Robin, Brooke and Roe to meet with Jeff on December 13th. Robin will send him the request.

Providence House

It was noted that January, February and March's OWGA meetings are important for the planning for this event. Robin to send our request to Jim Ritter for the donation of the golf and cart fees in support of this charity outing.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:07 a.m.

Respectfully submitted by:

Brooke Manino
